

20th Annual Margarettta Days Festival & Craft Fair
June 19 & 20, 2026
Middle River Park, DCC

Friday Evening, June 19, 2026

Join the Revolutionary War Reenactors of Downeast Maine - Skirmish at the Middle River Park.

Saturday, June 20, 2026

PARADE at 9:00 a.m. Reenactors, visiting reenactors, community members!
Welcome at 9:30 a.m. followed by a prayer led by the Reverend James Lyon, the first minister to Machias
(portrayed by Ray Estabrook).

Margaretta Days Craft/Artisan Fair is 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
An impressive variety of wares will be available for sale.

Historical Societies and Non-Profit organizations will showcase their activities and services.

Colonial Day on the Hill begins at 9:00 a.m.
Reenactors' encampments, featuring demonstrations of colonial era tools, skills, weaponry and food preparations. The Reenactors will present a couple of skirmishes during the day. Games and demonstrations for children and adults! Food and drink will be offered by a variety of vendors, including ARISE meat pies and pizza! Several musical performances and historical speakers!

Burnham Tavern Tours, 14 Colonial Way, noon to 3:00 p.m.

The schedule will be updated prior to the Festival.
Check www.machiashistoricalsociety.com for updates!